Our Third annual Spooktacular will be held at the Optimist building on Tues. Oct. 31st from 5:00-7:30 p.m. Please let Ernie Wren know if you can help.

We will be serving our annual Veteran's Day breakfast again this year on Nov. 11th. Since this is a Saturday, we will not hold our regular breakfast meeting, but we need lots of help with setup, cooking, serving, and clean-up. Please let Janet Popejoy know if you can help. She plans to have sign-up sheets on the door inside the Optimist building soon.

Numbers were back up to 129 at Bingo this Friday, with plenty of help on the floor and in the kitchen.

Breakfast this morning was provided by Deb Bowden, with plenty of help from Mike and Tracy Howard.

Our speakers this morning were Kellye McCord and Brenda Anderson, representing Helping Hands Southern Boone. Kellye and Sommer Estes-Wiley started the group in May to help deal with need in Southern Boone. Currently, Helping Hands is located at 800 S. Henry Clay, across from the Primary school building, but they are working out details so that they can move into the former Living Faith Church building on Rt. Y. At this time, they provide a clothing closet and food pantry for those in need in our communities.

The first event that they worked on was a First Responders Appreciation Event, held at the Ashland park shelter on Oct. 2nd for all Fire District, Police, and ambulance personnel and their families. Kellye, Sommer, and Brenda felt a need to host this Appreciation Event after the fire at the trailer court next to Dollar General. Approximately 200 people attended, along with several local politicians.

If you are interested in donating goods or know someone in need, you can contact Kellye at 573-356-1174 or you can send monetary donations to P.O. Box 403 here in Ashland. They have already been blessed with a $600 donation from Darryl Wood Heating & Cooling in the form of air conditioning for their future home.

They hope to be in their new building in time for a Thanksgiving dinner, open to anyone in Southern Boone, but provided for those who would be alone on the holiday.

Kellye and Brenda worked together to draw for our Attendance drawing. Ben Travelos, Megan Morris, and Linda Knierim missed their chance at riches, as well as a fine breakfast this morning, so the pot will continue to grow.
