Program- Janet Popejoy will recap the Tri-County conference held Feb 15-16 in Kansas city

There was a Board meeting, but in honor of Valentine's Day, it was moved the usual Thursday to Wed. Feb. 13th. Ginny Lewis spoke to the Board about a program she is involved with called Mizzou Alternative Breaks.

Here's a link to the letter she sent to Robert and Robin Blake with more information.

We are hoping to take donations to help her at a Breakfast meeting. I will report more about what happened at the Board meeting after the report from the Secretary.

Janet made it to Kansas City for the Tri-District Centennial Conference on Friday night and will report to us this Saturday!

Bingo on Friday night was cancelled (again) because of inclement weather. Hopefully Spring is on its way.

We didn't have a Breakfast meeting on Saturday, but it wasn't because of the weather. Instead the Southern Boone FFA fixed an incredible breakfast and provided it to anyone who came. They did extend their hours to 10:00 a.m. because of delays caused by the weather.
