Hey fellow Ashland Optimists! I don't know whether you have missed being together as much as I have missed all of you, but I have received an update from President Missy Bonderer and wanted to share the news with all of you.

The Board plans to meet on June 11th at 7:15 p.m. in the building. Please contact Barrett by Wednesday, June 10th to let him know whether you are willing to attend so that he can determine whether quorum will be possible. Social distancing will be utilized at the meeting.

At this time, we are looking at holding Bingo June 19th (Team Three in the kitchen).

The earliest Saturday breakfast meeting will be scheduled for June 20th (Bern Bonderer, Robert Blake, John Travelos-breakfast team).

Both of those dates may change depending on the Governor's emergency declaration, which is currently extended through June 15th.

Letitia DenHartog

(from May 25)

Have you ever considered attending an Optimist International Convention? This may be your opportunity! This year's iImagine Virtual Convention 2020 was announced by Adrian Elcock, President of Optimist International. OI has developed a fun, interactive online event to bring great speakers and training to our living rooms.

Participants can attend group events, such as the opening ceremony and keynote addresses, while also creating a personalized schedule of education sessions to meet their individual needs. The schedule of events will be announced next week. There will even be opportunities to socialize with your best Optimist friends and network with newcomers. It's Convention 2.0 on your couch, with no packing to do or plane tickets to buy! The iImagine Convention will be held on Saturday, June 27 in the morning and Sunday, June 28 in the afternoon. Each session will be three hours long.

Our Eastern District Governor, Michael Boles, has announced that the district will cover the cost for any members who would like to register. If you are interested, please contact Janet Popejoy at 573-823-9927 or me for more information on registration.
