This year's Safety on Wheels program will be held at the Optimist building after the breakfast meeting on Saturday, May 20th. Janet Popejoy is coordinating it again this year and hopes to have a sign-up sheet posted by next week. She would also appreciate any donations of materials for the program or cash to purchase helmets and bicycles, all of which is tax-deductible.

The next day, Sunday, May 21st, please join us at Wes and Sharon Donley's 60th Anniversary celebration, which will be held at the Ashland Senior Center from 2:00-4:00 p.m. The invitation specifies that they prefer no gifts.

Between it being the end of the month and the threat of bad weather, we only had 118 players at Bingo on Friday night, but we had plenty of help on the floor and enough help in the kitchen once Jordan Helms arrived.

Tessa, who normally cleans up after Bingo, was off Friday night. Thankfully, Les Gilpin, Charlie Selbach, Barrett and Brandon Glascock stayed after and cleaned. A big thank you to all of you!

Rick Kitchen from Kid's First Optimist in Columbia joined us for breakfast this morning and reminded our members about their Trivia Competition coming up next Saturday. A team from our club took second last year and Rick wants another chance to beat us. If you are interested on joining the trivia team, contact Ernie Wren at erniewren@gmail.com.

Our speakers this morning were Mike Gallagher and Eric Barmann from Connections Bank, which used to be Main Street Bank. Mike stated that the reason the bank changed names involves their hope to emphasize their commitment to building connections within the communities they serve.

Mike Gallagher and Rob Barmann were classmates in the 1970s. Rob started working at Bank Midwest and after 20 years there became Chief Executive officer at Wells Fargo Bank, which had been failing. Rob turned the bank around and started looking for other small town banks that were struggling and could use some assistance. One of those was Main Street Bank, which was purchased by Connections Bancshares in November 2015. Mike took control of Main Street, as well as locations in Bunceton and Prairie Home. Other than the change in name, Connections Bank has installed new ATM's and is planning to update the lobby at the Ashland facility.

Both Mike and Eric are active Ashland Optimist members and have already helped with Bingo and breakfast.

Eric drew for the attendance drawing and Steve Long was thrilled to say, "It pays to attend!"

Elmer Schiefer drew two pairs this month, which made him the winner of our monthly poker pot.
